

NEWS TOLD IN TABLOIDS.

LOCAL.

M. BOUVE GOES HOME.

Julius Bouve, the Chancellor of the French Embassy, at Washington, called for France on a three months leave of absence to-day on La Lorraine. Mr. Bouve is the man who was mainly responsible for the erection of the Rochambeau statue at Washington. He succeeded in having four bills passed through Congress in spite of great opposition.

PLANS FOR BIG HOTEL.

Plans have been filed at the Bureau of Buildings, Manhattan, for a nine-story brick hotel to be erected at the southwest corner of Broadway and One Hundred and Third street. The cost is placed at $750,000.

GIRL MISSING.

The police have been asked to look for Charlotte Reilly, fifteen years old, who ran away from her home, No. 364 Lafayette avenue, yesterday. The girl has light complexion, is slim, 5 feet in height, wears glasses and is dressed in a gray dress.

BROKE TOE ON STAGE.

Alexander Clark, the Sam Keno of "The Defender," at the Herald Square Theatre, broke a toe on the stage Tuesday night and was unable to appear yesterday.

MANAGER ARRESTED.

Henry Rosenberg, manager and owner of the Metropolitan Theatre, at One Hundred and Forty-second street and Third avenue, was arrested on a Supreme Court order in a suit brought by Paul Belike, a bartender, to recover $2,000 damages for assault.

CORNER-STONE TO BE LAID.

On Friday, July 11, the anniversary of the arrival of the French fleet at the landing of the French troops at Newport, the corner-stone of the monument to Admiral de Tervay, who died shortly after and whose grave is in the little cemetery of Trinity Church, Newport, will be laid.

GARDEN UNDERGOES CHANGES.

A force of laborers are at work on the grounds and partitions necessary to fit Madison Square Garden for the Woman's Exhibition, given by the Professional Woman's League. This task will require many weeks, the basement of the Garden, in which is to be a reproduction of a street in Venice, having to undergo particularly radical architectural changes.

WRECK ON CENTRAL,
ENGINEER IS HURT.

Southwestern Special Ran Into Freight Wreckage at Herkimer, but Passengers Escaped Without Injury.

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., July 10.—A New York Central train, westbound, known as the Southwestern Special, while running fifty miles an hour, ran into a mass of freight wreckage at Herkimer early to-day.

The passenger engine was thrown from the track and two cars of the passenger train were badly damaged.

Frank Bleph, of Albany, engineer of the passenger train, had his arm lacerated, but no passengers were injured.

The wreck was caused by a broken air hose, and before employees could flag the passenger train it crashed into the debris.

PASSENGERS HURT
IN RIVER COLLISION

Panic on Ferry-Boat West Brooklyn When She Was Rammed by Tugboat—Children Trampled.

In a collision to-day between the ferry-boat West Brooklyn and the tugboat Edward W. Palmer scores of passengers were thrown into panic and several were injured.

Nearby her dock at Whitehall street, the West Brooklyn, which had come from Thirty-third street, South Brooklyn, was rammed by the Palmer, which was steaming rapidly down the East River, and a big hole was stove in the starboard quarter of the ferry-boat. The tug, which belongs to the Moran Towing Company, was not injured.

As the big boat careened women screamed and faint and several children were trampled in the momentary excitement. Men struggled with each other to reach the life-reservers.

Although whistles were blown for assistance and other tugs hurried to the rescue fully ten minutes elapsed before the tugboat could be freed from the gap she had made in the ferry-boat's side.

FIVE KILLED IN FIRE AT TORONTO.

TORONTO, Ont., July 10.—Five firemen were killed this morning in a disastrous fire, which started in the old street railway stables at Front and George streets and swept the district to the east and south.

The stables were occupied by P. McIntosh & Sons. The flames raged through this building from the exploded to Front street, and an hour after the fire started only the front wall was standing.

The whole of the fire brigade fought the fire, but it leaped across the exploded and attacked the wholesale hys and straw warehouse of Gadsby & McCann.

David See, Harry Clarke, Adam Kerr, Walter Chalmers and several others were working outside the southeast wall of the McIntosh building, when the brick wall, two stories high, collapsed suddenly and toppled outward. The men were buried, and dead when excavated.

TELEGRAPH.

TO CALL A SPECIAL SESSION.

PUT-IN-BAY, O., July 10.—Gov. Nash has decided to call the Legislature to meet in special session on Aug. 25 to enact a municipal code bill for the several cities of the State.

IN HONOR OF GEN. PORTER.

LENEX, Mass., July 10.—A brilliant outdoor event was the garden party given by Mr. and Mrs. John Stano, their country house, Lyndhurst, in honor of Gen. Horace Porter, Ambassador to France, and Mrs. Porter. Over three hundred guests were present, a number of the wedding guests remained over for this event.

HELENA MUST PAY.

BOSTON, July 10.—Directors of the water works of Helena, Mon., the controlling stock of which is held in Boston, have voted to shut off the service there this month unless the city pays bills for water supplied to date, amounting to $73,000.

HEAT AND STORMS KILL MANY.

PITTSBURGH, July 10.—Eleven deaths from heat and ten serious prostrations have been reported. The mill workers are the greatest sufferers and many of them have been obliged to stop work.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

EASTON, Pa., July 10.—A cloudburst in the upper Bushkill district of Northampton County Tuesday night did a vast amount of damage. Charles Abel, a farmer, was struck by lightning and killed.

CENTRAL WINS TAX CASE.

ALBANY, July 10.—The Appellate Division, Third Department, reduces the State tax against the New York Central Railroad from $90,000 to $136,227.73. The company argued that $107,000,000 of its capital is invested in the stock of the Lake Shore Railroad and therefore should not be subject to State tax.

SUICIDE WAS A NEW YORKER.

PHILADELPHIA, July 10.—The young man who swallowed poison last Monday in the street after pawing his coat, has been identified as Louis Entz, of No. 324 East Sixth street, New York. His wife, Mrs. Lena Entz, identified the body at the Morgue.

HOT AT BAR HARBOR.

BAR HARBOR, July 10.—The temperature at noon registered 81 degrees, an unusual fact when it is known that the average temperature for July last year was 75.

ROSTAND ENDS FIGHT.

CHICAGO, July 10.—The petition filed last week by Lawyer William Barry asking leave to reopen the Gross-Mansfield case, involving the authorship of "Cyrano de Bergerac," was withdrawn and thus, after several years, the case was finally closed.

JULIA ARTHUR DOING WELL.

BOSTON, July 10.—The condition of Mrs. B. P. Cheney (Julia Arthur), who was operated on for appendicitis, is reported entirely favorable. Her doctor says she has rallied from the shock and is as comfortable as could be expected.

NEW TRAIL TO ESCAPE.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., July 10.—James Blaine, Leck Allen and James Murray, prisoners in the Buchanan County Jail, tried to blow up the jail with dynamite and escape. The attempt failed. The three then made a hard fight to escape, but they were too quick and beat them back with clubbed fists.

SPECIAL MASS FOR RAIN.

SANTA FE, N. M., July 10.—A special mass for rain was celebrated in Aguila today. The masses will be held in all the parishes of this section, as the drought is shriveling up the crops.

JUDGE MARVIN DIES.

SYRACUSE, July 10.—Judge William Marvin died at home in Skaneateles. He was ninety-four years old. He was appointed United States District Attorney for Florida by President Jackson, and United States Judge at Key West by President Van Buren.

PROGRESS EXPANSION.

SIEGEL COOPER & Co.
New York.

Saturday's Half Holiday
Means That Friday
Will Be Doubly Busy.

Crowds will hurry to the seashore or country Saturday. Many will start on their vacations. Many will return to the city Monday. But the needs of the multitude will be many nevertheless.

It may be something in men's furnishings. Possibly negligee shirts, neckwear, hosiery or underwear. Perhaps headwear.

But whatever it is, whether for the sterner or the gentler sex, it may be had at the Siegel Cooper store and in abundance, if it be in such lines as the world's greatest retail store can be expected to provide.

And vacation seekers will be able to profit all the more handsomely because of the progress of the Expansion Sales.

Things are humming merrily at The Big Store. Business is splendid in spite of the heat. We haven't any tales of dulness to tell; no recitals of lethargy to dispirit you.

The Store is a great attraction. It is a metropolitan centre of commerce, and thousands of out-of-town people find endless profit and entertainment in coming here.

We suggest to those who do not find it convenient to run into town, to use our Mail Order Department. We shop for you as carefully as if you shopped for yourself.
